CLASS OF '39 PROPHECY

Chicago, Illinois
October 14, 1945

Dear Charley:

I imagine you would enjoy knowing what has become of the Senior Class that graduated in '39. As I have just returned to my home in Chicago after a trip over the United States and in Mexico and have seen the most of my fellow classmates, I will tell you something about each of them.

Just before I left on my trip I went to the "Lady Dell Tearoom." It was just a new one and I was anxious to find out who the proprietor was. I was very surprised to find that it was Irena Dell McIntosh. We had a cup of tea and enjoyed a little visit before my leaving for the West.

My first stop was at St. Louis. I was spending the night there so I asked the manager at the hotel where I was staying, if there was any special entertainment. He answered that a great ice skater was to be there, so I decided to go. I was very astounded to see that the skater was Ruth Myers. I had a very interesting chat with her after the entertainment.

My next stop was at Denver. I went to a night club there and found that Walt Bowman was the manager. His special features for that week were a well known blues singer, Dorothy Karns, and a ballet team made up of Esther Doetz and Genevieve McKeon. When I was there, they were getting ready for their evening performance.

From Denver I went to Reno where I boarded a plane belonging to the North Pole Airlines. I went to San Francisco on this plane. On the way there I learned that Bill Wing owned the company.

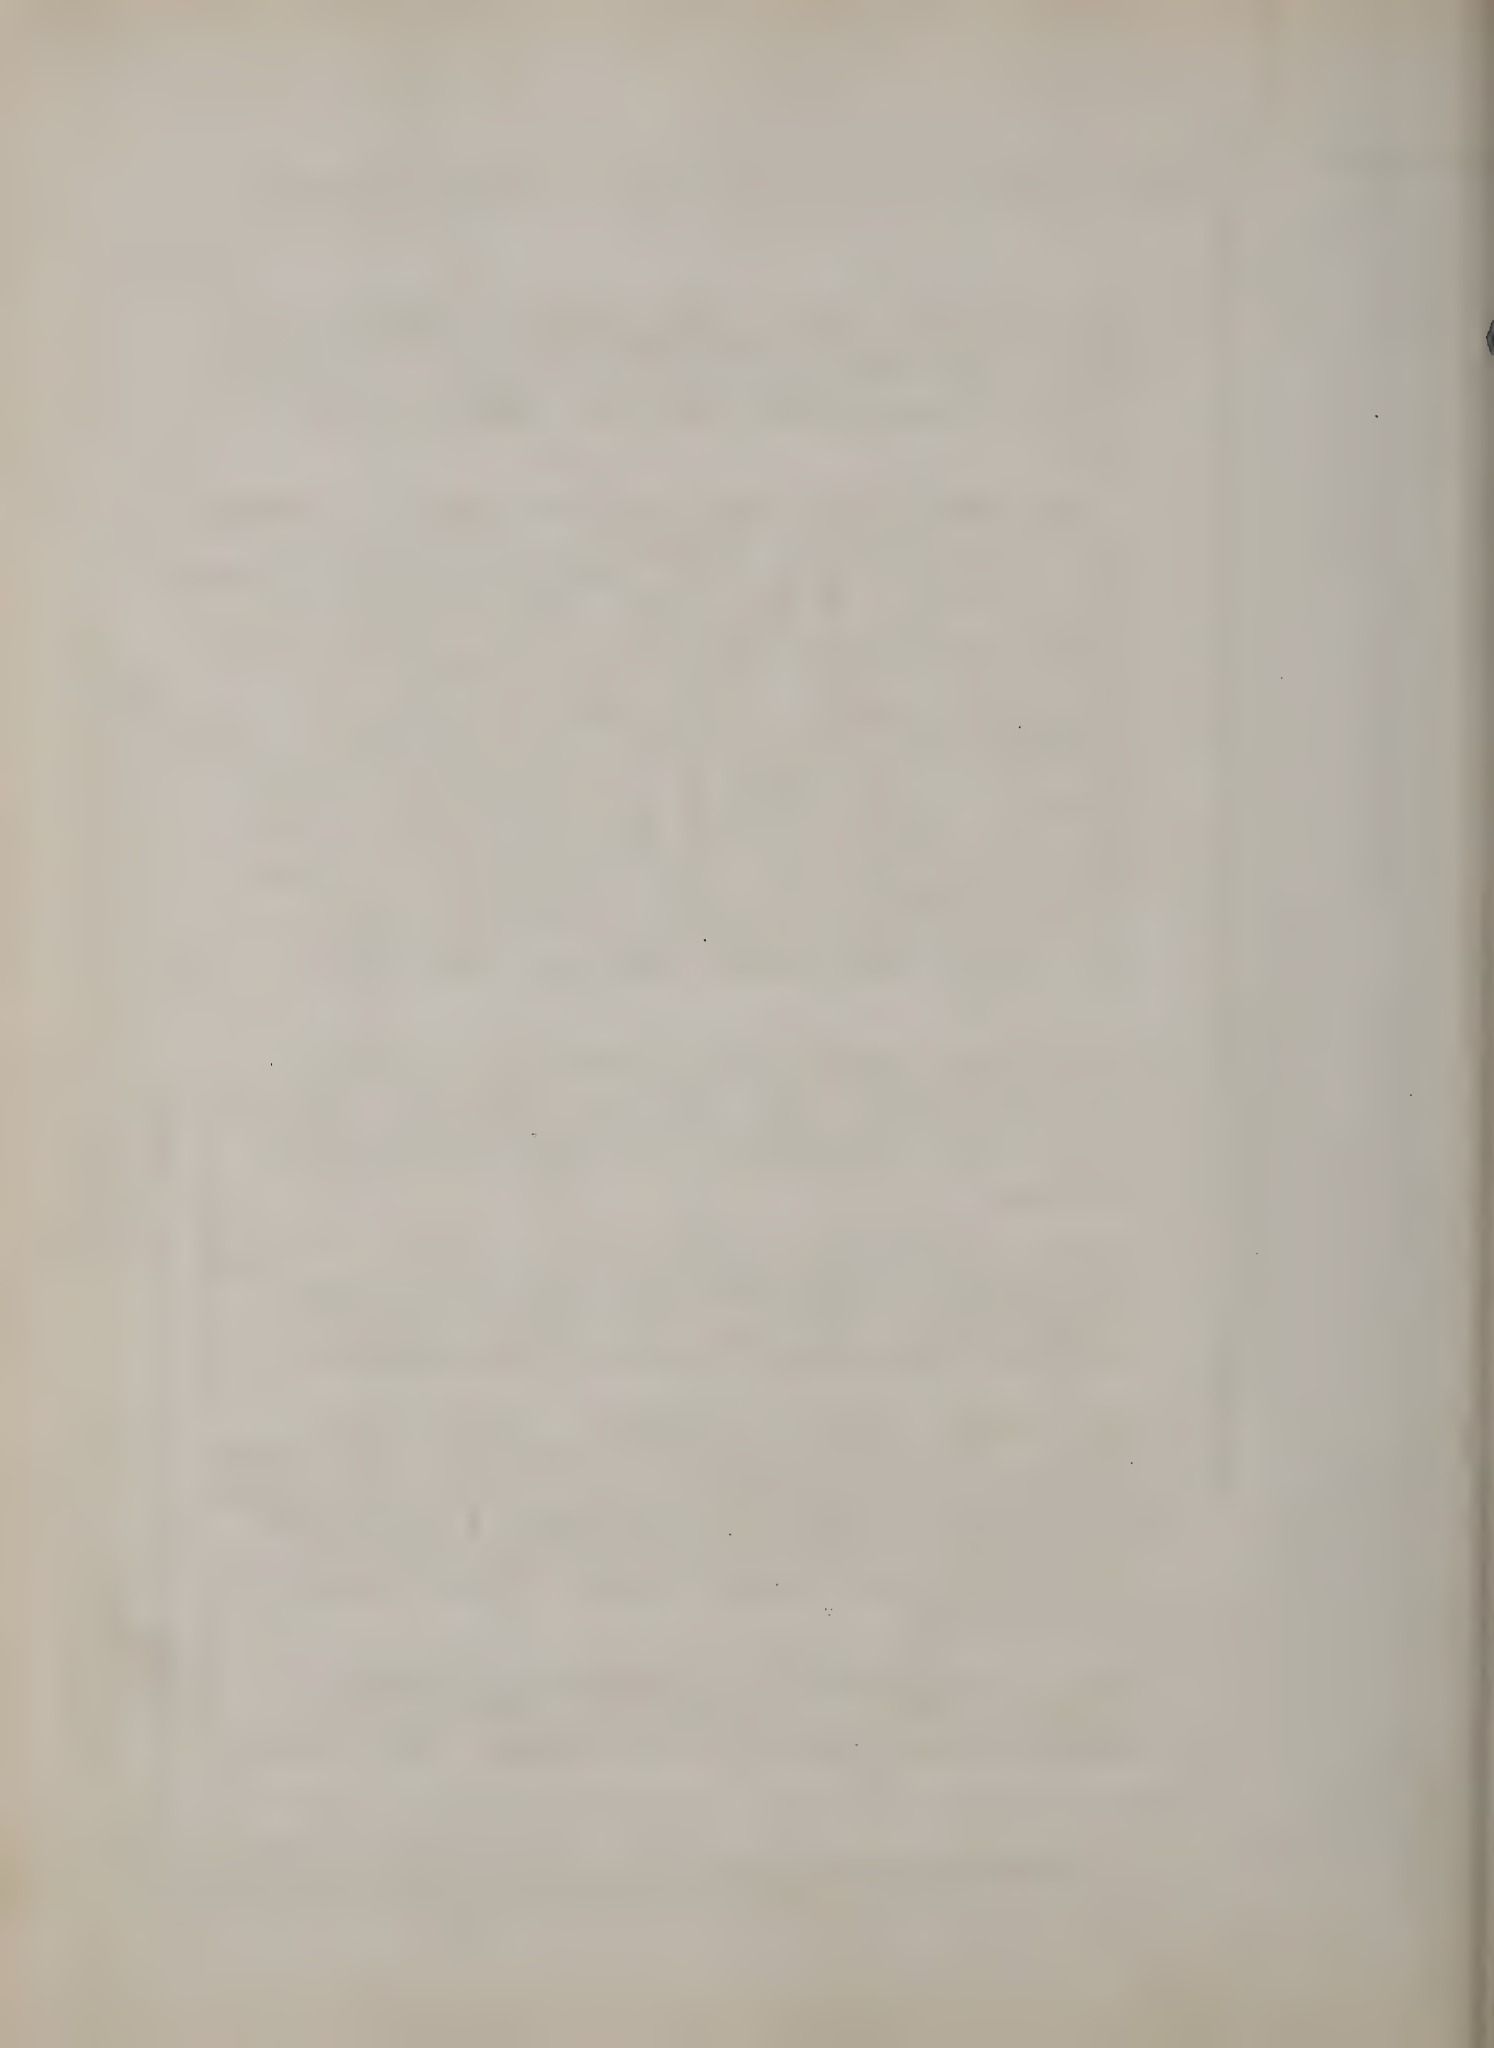

At San Francisco I attended the marriage of Ruth Whetsel and Charlie Farrington. This wedding was considered by society one of the most picturesque weddings of the year. Her wedding gown and trousseau were designed by some great Japanese designer and her hair was fixed in the very latest style. I was anxious to know who had fixed her hair for her, so I asked her. She said she had it fixed at "Ye Daisy Mae Beauty Shoppe." I decided that as soon as the wedding was over I would go down to the beauty shoppe and get a finger wave and a manicure. I found that the beauty shoppe was managed by Blanche Harman and her assistant was Virginia Kohl. I had a delightful visit with them both while I was there.

I couldn't resist the temptation of going to Hollywood; hence that was my next stop. Here I went to a stage show and saw Mary Jane Boyer. She is now a well-known comedian of stage and screen.

Next I journeyed to Mexico City. There I learned that Dick McIntosh was president of the Ajax Motion Picture Company. His latest picture is "Why Men Leave Home," starring Opal Snyder.

From Mexico I went to Dallas. While I was there, I decided to attend a concert. They were having a great clarinet player that night. When I got there I was very astonished to see that the clarinet player was Helen Meyer and her accompanist was Bernice Drake. Will wonders never cease?

Next I went to Miami. I attended Governor Bohlke's Ball. Maestro Wayne Farrington's Waltzers Band played for the Ball. The flowers for the ball were furnished by the Johnson and Nelson Green House. They were the most beautiful flowers I had ever seen.

Naturally I had to stop at the capitol of the United States. While I was there I learned that Bob Clark was running for the presidency on the "No-Nothing" ticket.

While I was going to New York, I happened to pick up a Chicago newspaper. It was just a new paper. It was called the "Beacon." The editor was Dorain Bower. In the paper I read where Paul Karns had invented a push button method that did all of his work for him. I also read that one of Lorene Strow's pictures was hanging in an art gallery in Paris. She won the Gay-Lussac Art Award for 1945. I was looking through the sports section and read where Perry Martin had been made the head of all athletics of Harvard University.

While I was in New York, I went to the Metropolitan Opera and heard Gay Bunge, a well-known singer and also heard Raymond Geeting, who is considered to be a second Rubinoff.

I also went to a horse race at Saratoga while visiting New York. Someone told me that the horses for these races were raised by Leonard Smith.

I took leave of New York and went to Detroit. It had been rumored around that Betty Dannells was to become the lead nurse of Ford's Hospital so I decided to see her while I was there. It was late afternoon before I had a chance to see her and she told me that that evening they were giving a banquet in her honor and asked me to stay. I could hardly refuse her invitation, so I stayed. We had a very enjoyable evening.

Well, before I could return home I had to go back to the old home town. It had not changed much as I could see. I went to see Ruth Stevenson, and strange as it may seem, she had become the Superintendent of Waterloo Public Schools. But I also learned that she was resigning her position to go to California to join Ray Smith who is a warden at Alcatraz. She said they were to be married next June. I asked her if she knew anything about Cleo Cpbbs as I hadn't heard anything about him and she said he was head of the Department of Agriculture at Indianapolis.

I returned to my house in Chicago feeling overjoyed at what I had learned about our Senior Class since the year of 1939.

Sincerely yours,

Marguerite Rempis

THE CLASS OF '39

Oh, hail to the class of '39
A better, I think you no'er will find,
The joys, the problems, we've all pulled thru'
Now comes graduation; goal of High School.

Esther and Jenny were always great pals,
Dorothy and Tookio are two fine gals,
Ruth Whetsol, our first beauty queen,
And of course Charlie with her, always seen.

There is Gay who loves to dance,
Dick Mc, who always takes a chance,
Opal Snyder and her style,
And oh! Irena's pleasing smile.

Lorene Strow who doesn't eat,
Those vitamins that are a treat.
And there's Jane--oh, so tall,
And poor Geot--to bashful to fall.

There's Wayne and Clark, student managers both,
Maggie and Drake, who never loaf.
Dannells who wants to be a nurse,
And in the end, have a big fat purse.

Perry, Ray, and Walt, our senior B.B. boys,
Yes, and Bohlke, the deliverer of toys,
Johnson and Nelson with their gay little smiles
While Bill and Leonard, have their trials.

There's Derain, a little Brunette,
And Paul Karns whose married--no, not yet.
Hamman and Kohl, noted for speeches,
Holon, Ruth Myers and Cobbs always their goal reaches.

Here is the end of this long rhyme,
We've heard the school bell's last chime.
The one great point to keep in mind--
Is that dear old class of '39.

JUNIOR CLASS ACTIVITIES

The Junior class was organized about the fourth week of school. The officers were elected. Many of the activities have been in the making of money for the Junior-Senior banquet. About the first of November and the middle of April the Class sponsored a skating party at the Silver Moon Rink. These added some money to our treasury. The class sold soft drinks at the basketball games, some of the class members being the salesmen. This proved to be quite profitable. A quilt was bought the first of December and tickets sold on it. The quilt was given away on January 7 at the Blind Tournoy Game. This was quite successful too. Four of the boys in the Junior Class are on the first ten in basketball. The class as a whole indulges in a great many outside activities. Its members belong to F.F.A.; Commercial Club; Hi-Y; Girl Reserves; and there is a F.F.A. basketball team on which several of our class play.

SOPHOMORE ACTIVITIES

The class of '41 has not had many activities this year. We have had one party at the Silver Moon Skating Rink. The other classes were all invited. We had a good attendance of Juniors and Seniors, besides the biggest share of Freshmen and Sophomore classes. Mr. Dorton, our coach, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bonocutter, and Mr. McIntosh were there.

We have three promising young men who are on our varsity basketball team. We also have others on the second team.

In the month of February our class sent of of it number, Helen Kuckuck, on a trip to Indianapolis. There she had the thrill of seeing our governor; a trip through the capitol buildings, and seeing the city of Indianapolis. There were others who went from other schools, therefore she made many new friends.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

During the first part of the month, in the year of nineteen hundred thirty, a group of parents led their young hopefuls into the grade school building on Van Vleck Street. There we were taught our A-B-C's by Miss Helen Callahan.

In nineteen hundred thirty-one, we were promoted into Miss Gertrude Newcomer's class. Then we were full fledged second graders.

Miss Hamman guided us thru' our third year. At the end of this year we were qualified for the fifth grade, taught by Miss Mary Bonfiglio.

Nineteen hundred thirty-five, found Mr. Bruce Gurtner preparing us for the seventh grade, where Messrs Barr, Bonecutter and Bowers gave us more knowledge.

Now is nineteen hundred thirty-eight and thirty-nine, we were freshmen. Under the supervision of Messrs Bonecutter, Dorton, McClain, Smith, and Misses Bachtel, Johnson and Snyder.

Our class now contains forty-eight students due to those who joined us from Richland Township.

FRESHMAN ACTIVITIES

The class of '42 started it's ninth year with forty-eight members who were initiated into High School a few weeks after school began. At about the same time the class was organized.

Soon after that, plans were made for a Hallowe'en party at the home of Norva Strow, on the evening of October 25. The game committee chairman was Marie Imhoff and the refreshment committee was Lois Blanchard, Lois Smith, and Dorothy Goodwin. We went on a scavenger hunt, then light refreshments were served.

The class then decided to have a Christmas party at the home of Lowell Howard, on the evening of December fifteenth. The game committee consisted of Agnes Green and Clifton Eberly. The refreshments committee was Mary Dannels, Lois Smith and Norva Strow. Games were played and ice cream and cake were served.

Another party was held at the skating rink with the Sophomores on the seventh of March 1939.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The future homemaker's met early in the fall of '38 and reorganized the club that started in '37. The following officers were elected:

President	Catherine Frotz
Vico President	Betty Baird
Sec.&Treas.	Lois Jennings
Yell Leader	June Krum

Plans were made for the coming year. A kid party, which, judging by the costumes, was a great success, was held at Hallowe'on (time). Other parties were held in keeping with the seasons holidays.

Home Economics programs have been very beneficial. They have consisted in the the showing of health slides, in the wrapping of gift boxes, and a trip to Fort Wayne on which the making of Perfection Biscuits and a home improvement dimonstration were observed and a tour of a hospital made.

Our motto is:

"To Make The Best Better."

-HONORS-

The Waterloo Wildcats were the North Eastern Corner Conference Champions for the Basketball season of 1938-39. The conference bell is still in our possession. The Wildcats won 19 of their 20 games for the season. Winning from such teams as Garrett and Auburn. The only game lost was to Leo, a strong Allen County team.

The Band took first place in class C in marching at the contest held at Columbia City.

Billy Jones, alto clarinet player, took the State Title for solo work on his clarinet.

Naomi Ish captured first prize in the North Eastern Corner Typing Contest held at Pleasant Lake. Ray Smith was second. The contest is to be held at Waterloo next year.

In the spring of 1938, Ruth Whetsel took fourth place in individual placement at the Commercial Contest held in Danville Indiana. The team, consisting of, Ruth Whetsel, Iris Pontius and Marvel Kutzner took third place at this same contest.

This school was granted a first class rating in 1939.
